HONORING: The Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez, M.Div., M.A., D.D.

Bishop Nelson J. Perez was born in Miami, Florida, of Cuban parents and raised in northern New Jersey. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology from Montclair State University and Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Theology in 1988 and 1989, respectively from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. He was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia in 1989 and served as pastor in a number of parishes while also serving as assistant director of the Office for Hispanic Catholics, founding director of the Catholic Institute for Evangelization and teaching psychology at the university level. In 1998, he was named Chaplain to His Holiness, Pope John Paul II, with the title of Monsignor and in 2009 was named a Prelate of Honor by Pope Benedict XVI.

In June 2012, then Reverend Monsignor Perez was named Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre in New York and received Episcopal Ordination on July 25, 2012. He served as Episcopal Vicar for the Eastern Vicariate of the Diocese as well as its Vicar for Hispanic Ministry. Bishop Perez was a member of the diocesan Priest Personnel Board, Presbyteral Council, and the Pastoral Council as well as board member of Catholic Health Services, Telecare TV, Vice-Chair of Diocesan Catholic Charities and Chair of the Diocesan V Encuentro Planning Committee.

He was installed as Bishop of Cleveland in 2017 and currently serves the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as a member of their Standing Committee on Cultural Diversity and chairs their Sub-Committee for Hispanic Affairs. Bishop Nelson is a joyous priest and enriches those people entrusted to his care.

HONORING: Mike Breen

Veteran NBA play-caller Mike Breen is the lead voice for the NBA on ESPN and ABC, including for the NBA Finals, the NBA Conference Finals and NBA Saturday Primetime on ABC. Breen has called the NBA's premiere event a record-setting 12 times, more than any other NBA play-by-play broadcaster. He joined ESPN's NBA team in October 2003 and now works primarily with Doris Burke, Mark Jackson and Jeff Van Gundy on ESPN and ABC.

Breen joined ESPN with 12 seasons of NBA play-by-play on his resume, having worked national telecasts for NBC and the Knicks for New York's Madison Square Garden's television and radio networks. Breen has also done NFL play-by-play for NBC and FOX. Also, Breen covered the WNBA at NBC, as well as men's and women's basketball at the 1996, 2000, 2004 and 2008 Olympics.

In 1998, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named Breen "Broadcaster of the Year" in his native state of New York. A Fordham University graduate, Breen began his career in radio at WEOK/WPDH in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. He worked in local radio and television in the New York area, including WNBC-AM, SportsChannel, MSG and, most prominently, on Imus in the Morning on WFAN-AM and simulcast on MSNBC.

Mission Statement of Catholic Charities

As a ministry of the Roman Catholic Church, Catholic Charities assists in serving the basic needs of the poor, troubled, weak, and oppressed and is committed to addressing the causes of injustice. We aim to organize and empower people to secure the participation of all in the life of the community.
